- VII. 6:30 Events Committee
 - A. Committee Report:

Events Committee Did not organize an event this reporting period. We found no interest in the Executive Committee for participation in Sheriff Jenkins reelection Christmas parade. There is very little public comment on that parade. I have approached the local media to see if anyone knows who participated. --David Reuther
 - B. (David) Voter Registration banner
- VIII. 6:45 Precinct Ops Committee

A. Committee Report:

No activity to report. At the January meeting, we should exhort our members to step up as precinct captains for the vacancies we have for Rixeyville, East Fairfax, Eggbornsville, Willow Shade, and South Ridge.
--Mike McClary

B. OneVirginia2021 requests help with lit drop

IX. Candidate Recruitment and Endorsement Committee

A. Committee Report:

Candidate Recruitment and Endorsement Committee activities. David Reuther and Ed Dunphy have begun the process of learning what is going on as far as candidates for local office in 2019. David and Ed met with Butch Davies and Monica Chernin. David met with Zann Nelson. Ed met with Sue Hansohn. Ed met with Paul Bates Jr. BOS: Salem District – Incumbent Alexa Fritz is not running. Ed spoke with her briefly and is still trying to meet with her. BOS: West Fairfax – Incumbent Gary Deal is leaning toward running. Ed spoke with him briefly and is still trying to set up a meeting with him. BOS: Catalpa – Incumbent Sue Hansohn is not running. She said that Paul Bates Jr. (current member of the Culpeper Planning Commission) has an interest in running for her seat. Our goal is to complete preliminary information gathering in January/February. Then we would like to pull a full committee together and set up sub committees in each of the 4 districts that are having BOS and School Board elections this year. Perhaps the Precinct Ops Committee could be the basis for the full committee.
--Ed Dunphy

X. Voter education committee

The voter education committee would like to report that we have approval from the Culpeper Times for a monthly 500-600 word article for educating the public on state and local offices, how they function, where to vote, how and where to vote early, etc. --Rebecca Layne

XI. Nominating committees update (Ben)

A. HOD18 decided on a primary

B. HOD30 will meet next week, should also decide on a primary.

C. SD17, 24, & 27 committees still in formation

XII. 7:00 - 7th CD Observer Report (David)

7th CD Meeting Shenandoah Room H, Omni Hotel. Moderator Abbi Easter, modest attendance.

1. An extensive discussion about the defeat at the earlier DPVA meeting of the 17th resolution to have only non-sectarian prayer at Democratic meetings. Defeat came because of a) those who thought that directing guests of faith to pray in a certain way was offensive; b) belief that those in charge of such meetings should be left to handle such a situation properly; and finally c) opinion that we have no business offering prayers at political meetings anyway. The motion was sent back to committee, and the vote at the 7th CD caucus was to withdraw the motion.

2. Kudos to Spanberger for running a great campaign and Kudos to the hard work of the 7th CD caucus county committees.

3. Discussion of whether 7th CD caucus should hold a fundraiser in 2019 or await Spanberger's next campaign. The group decided to hold a fundraiser in 2019. The theme of the fundraiser would be "Taste of the 7th CD." Tentative date is Saturday, March 9. Venue is a country club in Powhatan county. Each county committee is invited to bring one or two dishes from a renown restaurant in its county.

4. Discussion of how to support Spanberger for the next two years and assist her reelection. Each county committee was encouraged to pass a list of events that Spanberger should attend. Abbi made the point that the 2020 election could stress the county committees. It can be assumed that large chunks of Spanberger's outside money will be occupied elsewhere. Abbi conducted an extensive exposition of the DPVA thinking that goes into how and when it decides to support a candidate.

5. Strong advice to committee members to withdraw from personal postings during a campaign period because of how personal social media postings may complicate the campaign's story line or the general image of the Democratic Party in Virginia.

--David Reuther

A. Taste of the 7th fundraiser

XIII. New Business

A. (David) Should CCDC participate in rural retreat

B. Any other new business?

XIV. Adjourn
